
International contest for young people

“AMITIE youth teams for human rights of migrants”

The International Youth Contest (hereinafter – Contest) is organized by partners of the AMITIE CODE project: Municipality of Bologna (IT) – Emilia Romagna Regional Government (IT), Municipality of Reggio Emilia (IT), FAMSI (ES), Municipality of Loures (PT), City of Toulouse (FR), Municipality of Riga (LV), Alma Mater Studiorum Università degli Studi di Bologna (IT), CEI-IUL (PT), Sevilla Acoge Foundation (ES), GVC Onlus (IT), Hamburger Volkshochschule (DE), Latvian Center for Human Rights (LV), European Coalition of Cities against Racism (ECCAR), CITTALIA (IT).

The aim of the AMITIE CODE project is to promote citizens' awareness on the connections among migrations, development and human rights and to build local authorities', teachers' and students' capacities in these fields.

The project is funded by the European Union and the contest is promoted by the ECCAR, a network of 130 cities against racism, supported by UNESCO.

What is the aim of the contest?

The aim of the contest is to promote the idea that protection of human rights of migrants and promotion of diversity can contribute to building more inclusive and sustainable societies.

Background information and inspiration can be found in the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, specifically under Goal 10 (Reduce inequality within and among countries), Goal 11 (Make cities inclusive, safe, resilient and sustainable) and Goal 16 (Promote just, peaceful and inclusive societies).

What needs to be created to participate to the contest?

Audio visual material (for example, a short film/cartoon or any other motion material) that can be understood internationally (in English, subtitled in English or without verbal dialogue). The message of the audio visual material should express the aim of the contest stated above.

Who can participate?

Teams of minimum 3 and maximum 6 young people (including pupils attending the same or different secondary schools) aged 14-19.

In case of award a team of young people should be accompanied by an adult.

What is the duration of the contest?

The duration of the contest is from 1st February to 29th April 2017.

Which are the rules for admission?

- Audio visual material up to 3 minutes in length (excluding credits) with maximum size of 2 GB related to the aim of the contest.
- Audio visual material must be in zipped MOV or MP4 format.
- Each youth team can submit only one audio visual material.
- No enrollment fee is required.
- Materials produced by professionals are not admitted.
- Materials promoting, naming or showing commercial brands or that can in any other way be considered advertisement will not be admitted.

Which are the rules for submission and deadline for submission?

The following files should be submitted by 29th April 2017 in one zipped folder identified with the short title of the audio visual material and the name of the country represented:

- the audio visual material;
- entry form duly filled out (preferably in English);
- one group picture (PDF, JPG, PNG, TIFF) of the team;
- three pictures (PDF, JPG, PNG, TIFF) taken during the creation of audiovisual material.

The folder with the necessary files indicated above must be submitted by through Dropbox and link to the folder should be sent to comunicazione@e-35.it and eccar@rathaus.potsdam.de

The audio visual materials that do not conform to these requirements and do not correspond to the aim of this contest will be excluded from the selection.

Who will select the materials and award the prize?

- All materials will be viewed by the European Coalition of Cities Against Racism, that will be in charge of the selection.
- Decisions will be irrevocable.
- The award will be a 4 days (3 nights) trip to Lisbon (Portugal) in November 2017, to take part in the AMITIE CODE project final event. If the selected material is submitted by a Portuguese team, the award will be a 3 days/2 nights trip to one of the other partner cities.
- The winners of the award will be announced on-20th May 2017.

What happens to your production, if it wins? Whose property is it and how can it be used?

- Submitted works will become joint property of AMITE CODE project partners and of the authors. Project partners, the authors and the European Union can disseminate the materials to the wider public, by any means, free of charge and with the exclusion of any profit.
- AMITIE CODE project partners have the authorization to use the submitted materials in screenings during public events, via web on the project website as well as Youtube, Vimeo or any other on-line dissemination channel and by including them in DVDs and in any other physical support, in order to disseminate the project and the project activities.
- Project partners will provide authors a version of the material with the project logo, EU flag and disclaimer, if selected, for dissemination purposes, according to European Union visibility rules. Authors will have the authorization to use the material, if selected, only in its version with project and EU logos, in screenings during public events, via web on their websites as well as Youtube, Vimeo or any other on-line dissemination channel and by including them in DVDs and in any other physical support, in order to disseminate the project and the project activities. Material MUST always, under any circumstances, be screened, shown and provided for free and must never be used for profit.

ACCEPTANCE OF RULES

- Participation to the contest involves accepting the above-stated rules.
- Participants can't submit works produced by third people, but only works produced by the participating team.
- The lead partner of AMITIE CODE project has the right to integrate or modify existing rules, if necessary and only under specific and well-motivated cases.

ENTRY FORM FOR THE INTERNATIONAL CONTEST FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

“AMITIE youth teams for human rights of migrants”

Information about the audiovisual material
Title of audiovisual material
Country
City
Short Synopsis (max 300 characters)
Information about the youth team and the accompanying person
Name of the youth team
1.Name, surname, age, school e-mail address and phone number
2.Name, surname, age, school e-mail address and phone number
3.Name, surname, age, school e-mail address and phone number
4.Name, surname, age, school e-mail address and phone number
5.Name, surname, age, school e-mail address and phone number
6.Name, surname, age, school e-mail address and phone number
7. Name, surname, age, e-mail address and phone number of the accompanying person in case of award (information can be provided either at the submission stage of the application or within a month after the results of the competition are announced)
Social channels
Social channels of the school (s) (“no” if not present) Facebook: Twitter: Instagram:

Date

member

Signature of the team