

Digital UNESCO MASTERCLASS
Colonial Continuities and Environmental Justice
September 28th from 17 to 19.30

1. Welcome and introduction
2. Opening remarks
 - a. Linda Tinio, UNESCO
 - b. Benedetto Zacchioli, ECCAR President
3. Recap - Why do we need to talk about Colonial Continuities and Environmental Justice?
4. Interventions
 - a. Daphné Budasz, a PhD researcher at the department of History and Civilization of the European University Institute (EUI) in Florence
 - b. Abdou Mbacke Diouf, Molecular Biologist and Writer
 - c. Tonny Nowshin, economist, climate justice and degrowth activist (TBC)
 - d. Patience Nabukalu, Climate justice Activist, Coordinator Friday for Future Uganda and a member of FFF MAPA, Fighting against Wetland Degradation and Plastic Pollution
5. Workshops with the speakers
 - a. Daphné Budasz: How to decolonize? Rethinking the role of historical knowledge and colonial continuities
 - b. Abdou Mbacke Diouf: The Elephant in the room - How racism shapes our environment and every single decision we take
 - c. Tonny Nowshin: TBC
 - d. Patience Nabukalu: EAST AFRICAN CRUDE OIL PIPELINE (EACOP) - the consequences on Uganda
6. Recap of workshops
7. Final Conclusion